TURF CONGRESS AND JOCKEY CLUB.

NEW YORK, December 10.—Assistant Secretary Hanlon of the Jockey Club gives out, under instructions, in view of the statement which was made after the meeting of the American Turf Congress at Cincinnati, on Dec. 7, the following telegrams, which, he says, give the exact phase of the situation:

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 7, 1897.—August Belmont, President Jockey Club: At a consultation here today of friends of legitimate racing, including several members of the Turf Congress, about the unfortunate situation of those racing at Pimlico since Nov. 30, under Turf Congress by-law, No. 6. It is the sentiment that no purpose existed to violate the by-law by those participating, and the members of the Turf Congress will be asked to relieve the Pimlico people as soon as action can be had with the belief that the Jockey Club and the Turf Congress will hereafter reach a mutual position on winter racing. Can you express an opinion on the probability of accord between the two bodies on that subject?

C. C. MAFFITT, Pres. American Turf Congress. Mr. Belmont replied as follows:

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—C. C. Maffitt, President American Turf Congress: The Jockey club has held itself ready at any time to consider any proposition from the American Turf Congress, since the Congress broke its agreement with the Jockey club, but could not under any circumstances take the first step. I see no reason why an understanding cannot be reached. You must recognize, however, in this connection that if the Jockey Club is to maintain its authority and dignity in a manner to be expected of it, it could not tolerate the extension of any of your regulations over race meetings under Jockey Club rules within what is accepted as its own territory

AUGUST BELMONT.

PLENTY OF CALIFORNIAN ENTRIES.

No less than 508 different horses have been entered in the thirty stakes offered by the California Jockey Club. The full entry list has just been published in book form and is quite a study. The total number of entries foot up to 2962, which is almost an average of 100 to a race. The biggest list secured for any race totals 203, while the smallest is twenty-eight, for a two-miles-and-a-quarter event. Those owners who expected to run up against only moderate company in such an event as the Golden Gate stakes for horses that had not won $1000 in 1897 at the time of closing of the entries will find such horses as San Venado, St. Calatino, Tea Rose III, Altamax, Crescendo, Instaltator, Newgatherer, Buck Massie, Ostler Joe, Torsida and Satsuma.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

California has organized a permanent Protective Breeders Association. The organization was the outcome of the expulsion of Charles Boots and his stable from the Oakland track. The committees on incorporation and constitution and by-laws were appointed. Porter Ashe and H. H. McPike, attorneys for the new association, were instructed to file articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State.

There seems to be a chance that out of the negotiations upon the heels of the Pimlico date tangle the Turf Congress and Jockey Club may reach an agreement for the good of both and the health of American racing.

Mr. Chas. Fleischmann is dead. His demise is a loss to the turf. He was an enthusiastic if not an attentive or intelligent turfman and stimulated the sport a good deal by his liberal expenditures.

The most improved horses at the meetings, to our mind, are Judge Denny, Horatio, McLight, Daylight, Lady Hurst and George Lee. Don Luis, Our Climate, Lode Star are also improved over their form of last spring.—San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman.

It is reported on good authority that a number of the Haggin yearlings will hereafter be sold in England. We imagine the ones to be sold are those sired by Goldfinch, Watercress, Preston-pans, Artillery, Golden Garter and other imported horses.

J. J. Van, Chicago, Ill.—The race you refer to was a handicap at nine furlongs over the hill at Morris Park, October 24, 1896. Harry Reed (122), won; Glenmoyno (113), was second and The Swain (97), third. Time, 1:37.

Barney Schreiber picked up another good broodmare a few days ago in San Francisco when he paid $175 for Charmion, who is but seven years old and by Tyrant—Unit.

Scar Pin is being slowly galloped at Ingleside, and will be ready to race soon. Atkin & Lottridge, her owners, think they have the best filly on the coast.

Van L. Kirkman's snow white yearling colt White Cross, by Palestine—Black Girl, was broken recently, and showed an eighth in 12 seconds.

Joe Murphy has been offered the presiding judgeship at Little Rock. On account of Californian racing he was forced to decline.

Winner—Br. c, by Darebin—Bavaria. Start good. Won eased up. The going suited B & W and in it he outclassed his field. He favors a distance of ground. Rufalba runs best on a hard track, was badly ridden and closed a lot of ground. The track suited Cerillos, who is only a sprinter. He was not well handled. Pleasanton favors a sprinting distance and fast going. Throw out Singer's race. She was over her capacity as to weight and distance and poorly managed. The Belle was overweighted. Justine and Florimel ran short.

Overweights—B & W, 3 pounds; Justine, 3; Fannie S, 2.

Winner—Ch. g, 4, by Hanover—Blessing. Start good. Won ridden out. Montgomery was lucky, well ridden and favored by the track. O'Connell was perhaps the best and none too well handled or lucky. The Dog had no speed. He has stated and was eased up at the end. Scratched—Chic, 94.

Winner—B. c, 4, by Duke of Montrose—Sea Mew. Start good. Won handily. Mann revealed in the going and was best and lucky. The pace was very slow. Bland was badly ridden. He did not run his race. Throw it out. Faverdale is good, but is best on a hard track. She closed stoutly at the end. The Wheel was overweighted in the going. She favors a hard track. McCloskey was not among his own kind. Scratched—Collins, 106.

Time, 25½, 52, 1:05½, 1:19, 1:46.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Fitzjames—Olive. Start dragging. Won in a hard drive. William was lucky and beautifully ridden. Yule would have got him in a few more strides. She was not well handled and was interfered with on the first turn. The Plutocrat ran a good race and is ready. Ione and Spunwell, not well ridden, were both shut off at the start and closed strong. Plan was off badly and made up much ground. The going suited him. Pongo was short and not among his own kind. He can run well in mud and can be watched. Gwynn seems to have no class. Scratched—El Puerto, 78; Don Luis, 78; Lone Princess, 101; Atticus II, 104; Fonsavannah, 87; Navy Blue, 113.

Overweights—Sweet William, 14 pounds; The Plutocrat, 3.

Time, 25½, 51½, 1:04½, 1:17½.

Winner—Ch. f, by Torso—Judith. Start good. Won in a hard drive. Sharp may have been best. Yet Torsida ran an impressive race. She will do better from now on. The filly has class and courage and will improve over a distance. She was well ridden, lucky and favors soft going. Sharp had poor luck. He is a game colt. Lee was shut off at the start, but closed strong. He can be tabbed for a route. Was not well ridden. All the others were outclassed. Henry C and Wing were short. Watch them. Burnham is of no account. Scratched—Watomba, 100; Al Koran, 103; Los Prietos, 112.

Overweights—Henry C, 44 pounds.
